

HISTORY

The Chamber is an instrument to promote and contribute to the development of business between the Czech Republic and all Nordic countries and to increase mutual contacts between them. The Chamber is a non-profit organization and has no political aims.

The NCC was founded in January 1995 by forty Swedish companies officially registered in the Czech Republic under the name Swedish Chamber of Commerce and participated in various forms in commercial relations between Sweden and the Czech Republic. Later on other Nordic companies were invited. As a consequence of the broadened scope the name was changed to Nordic Chamber of Commerce in 2005.

PROGRAM

- to support and protect the common interests of its members in various fields such as industry, trade agriculture and services
- to organize advisory service for its members
- to initiate, organize, support and coordinate seminars, business meetings and social events
- to issue newsletters, bulletins, memoranda and other forms of communication
- to assist, mediate services, support and represent its members when dealing with governmental and local authorities on the above mentioned matters.

MEMBERSHIP

Any Czech or Nordic company, entrepreneur or other subject involved in industry, trade, agriculture or service and actively supporting business relations between the Czech Republic and the Nordic countries in the Czech Republic may obtain full membership in the Chamber.

The Management Board may accept or reject new members of the Chamber at its discretion.

The other membership category is the "individual category" – for private persons. A member agrees that his/her address will be included in the mailing list for NCC information circulation and details about his/her Company will be displayed on the web page www.nordicchamber.cz in the MEMBERS section.
